

FISCAL NOTE

SB 290 - HB 1776

February 16, 2001

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires the Director of Schools to submit a list of all teachers eligible for tenure and allows the local board of education to grant tenure to teachers with or without the recommendation of the Director of Schools and to fix the salaries and prepare employment contracts for such teachers. The local boards would also notify teachers of the failure to grant tenure and the termination of their employment.

Currently, teachers must be recommended by the Director of Schools to receive tenure and the local board of education grants tenure from those recommendations.
